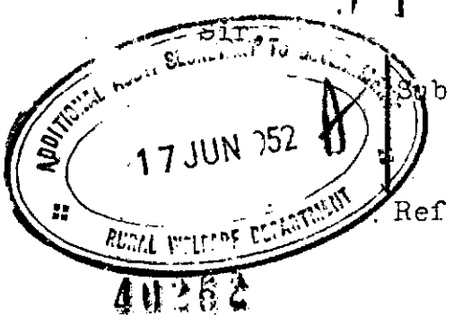
No.G4-6408/52 Dated 11-6-1952.



Sub: Pension - Compassionate gratuity - Late Sri.U. Somayya, Headmaster, Harijan Welfare School, Malpe.

Ref: Rc.No.S1-2765/52 Dated 29-2-1952 and 26-5-52 from the Collector of S.Kanara.

Sri.U.Somayya, Headmaster, Harijan Welfare School, Malpe who had put in about twentytwo years of service died on 29-9-51 and his widow, Srimathi Seshamma has applied for the sanction of compassionate gratuity. With reference to rule 7(1) (a) of the Madras Compassionate gratuities (Non-pensionable Establishment) Rules 1941, gratuity shall not ordinarily be granted where a deceased Government servant had left net assets of value exceeding twenty four months pay. It will be seen from the Collector's letter dated 26-5-52 (copy enclosed) that the value of the net assets left by the deceased exceeds his twentyfour months pay and therefore no gratuity is ordinarily admissible. However in view of the fact that the deceased had left behind besides widow five minor children and considering the pitiable position in which they have been left since there is none to support them, I recommend the Collector's proposal for payment of the compassionate gratuity of Rs.864/- to the widow of the deceased for herself and for her minor children in her custody.

The following records are enclosed.

1. Rc.No S1-2765/52 dated 29-2-52 from the Collector of S.Kanara.
2. Copy of Rc.No.S1-2765/52. dated 26-5-52.

Sir,

PENSION - Compassionate gratuity - Late Sri U.Somayya - Headmaster, Harijan Welfare School Kalpe - application of widow - Seshamma - report.

Sri U.Somayya Headmaster, Harijan Welfare School, Kalpe died of T.B.Peritomitics, on 29.9.51, in the Government Hospital at Udipi. His widow, Srimathi Seshamma, has now applied for the sanction of the compassionate gratuity.

2. The deceased joined service, on 16.9.29, as a teacher, worked in several schools, as Assistant Teacher and Headmaster and died on 29.9.51 due to T.B.Peritomitics, when he was in active service. He was confirmed as Headmaster Harijan Welfare School Kuniya, with effect from 16.4.46 and he continued to hold that substantive post, until his death. The teacher had thus put in a total service of 23 years and 14 days, at the time of his death. The conduct and character of the teacher during his service were found to be satisfactory.

3. The deceased has left behind him, his widow, and six children, aged 20 years, 16 years, 14 years, 11 years 7 years and 2 years respectively. Of the six children one has attained majority and is living seperately with her husband. She has given here consent, for the grant of compassionate gratuity, to the widow of the deceased. The other children are minors and they are living directly under the guardianship of their mother Seshamma. The family was entirely dependent, on the deceased at the time of his death. There are no relatives to the applicant who are either in a position or under any obligation to support the family. It is also found that the deceased had not left any property, except one small mulageni plot, in which the family is now put up. The deceased was a subscriber to the G.P.F. and he had at his credit only Rs.180/- at the time of his death. Enquiry shows that he head incurred debts to the extent of Rs.300/- in connection with his illness.

4. I am satisfied that the applicant deserves the grant of gratuity, in view of the long service of her husband, under the Government and the poor state in which she has been left, on his demise. The applicant has also the responsibility of feeding and bringing up the seven children, until they come of age,

5. The pay of the teacher at the time of his death was Rs.50/- plus D.A. at Rs.22/- per month. The aggregate of his pay and D.A. thus comes to Rs.72/- per month. I therefore recommend, that in view of the tragic circumstances, in which the family lost its only breadwinner, the maximum amount admissible in this case i.e. Rs.864/- (Rupees eight hundred and sixty four only) being the twelve months pay of the deceased may be sanctioned to the applicant.

The amount may be made payable at the Sub Treasury at Udipi.

6. The deceased belonged to the 'Billava' community and according to the custom followed in this District they follow the Aliyasantana Law succession. Under the recent Aliyasantana amendment act, the self acquisitions of a deceased pension, have to go to his widow and children. Some of the relatives of the ~~eb~~ deceased, object to the grant of the compassionate gratuity to the wife of the deceased, on the ground that they belong to the 'Billava' community, and that they are the followers of Aliyasanthana, Law of Succession" As 'Gratuity' is the self acquired property of the deceased, the other members of the family are not entitled to it, Hence their objections may be overruled.

7. The descriptive roll of the applicant in triplicate, the records of enquiry and the service register of the deceased are enclosed.

Yours faithfully,

For Collector.

The genealogical table of the family of the deceased L. Somaya, Head Haste, Harijan Welfare School at Kadpe, prepared by me in this case may be perused. The enquiry held in this case shows that the family of the deceased is governed by the Aliya Santhana Laws of Succession and Inheritance. The deceased had left his wife and six children as furnished in the G. Table. The eldest daughter of the deceased, Indira is married girl. The wife of the deceased states that she does not know who are the relatives of deceased her, and where are they. She further states that the presence of their marriage, they are living separately, and none of the relatives has not visit their house and may have also not contacted with any of them. Hence she is ignorant of it.

Recommended to the Welfare Officer South Kanara.

Enquiry held in this case reveals that the deceased has left his widow wife and six children. The deceased has been governed by the Aliya Santhanam Law of Succession and belong to Billava Community. He also left his 3 direct sisters and one brother. Out of 3 sisters 2 are widows as furnished in the genealogical Table. These family of the deceased also entirely dependent on him. This family has also no property and even they have no means of livelihood whatsoever. It is reported that the wife has some relatives at Tumkur village. The deceased has not left any property except a piece of Landagen land. He also insured his life. But his policy has not been paid to his wife. She states that the policy has been taken by her daughter who is reported to be at Bombay. The widow of the deceased also states that the Insurance Company has made a heap of Rs 3000/- during his sickness.

As the family of the deceased belongs to a very poor family having no prospects of any kind as the husband belongs to Adi-Dravida community & the untimely death of the bread winner, there is no other way to get relief. The relatives of the deceased object to grant the gratuity to this family so as to get some relief. The relatives of the deceased object to grant the gratuity to his wife as the Provident Fund & part of his life insurance will go to her, & she have no means hereafter & the widow & children of the deceased entirely dependent on him. They also state that the deceased had pursuance some enquiries (45) 37 in favour of his wife. I have also enquired with the states of his relatives. Very enquiry in this respect reveals that the widow sisters of the deceased are entirely dependent on the deceased and the sudden death of their brother made them to suffer in lot.

In views of these facts I submit that the grant of gratuity is absolutely necessary and it may be divided in equal shares between his widow wife and his sisters.

The statement of his widow wife and his sisters with G. Table are enclosed.

To the Accountant General. (Pension Verification Section) with the descriptive roll of the grantee.

5. Under Rule 7(i)(a) of the Madras Compassionate Gratuities (Non-Pensionable Establishments) Rules 1941, compassionate gratuity shall not ordinarily be granted where the deceased Government servant had left net assets of value exceeding twenty-four months' pay. In this case, the late teacher has left net assets (houses, property and things) worth of Rs.1,880 which exceeds his twenty-four months' pay plus allowances by Rs.152/-. Hence the family of the deceased teacher is not ordinarily eligible for any grant. But the Director of Harijan Welfare has recommended the grant of compassionate gratuity of Rs.864/-, as a special case, to the widow, in view of the fact that the deceased has left behind besides the widow, five minor children, and considering the pitiable position in which they have been left.

The maximum amount that may be given in this case is Rs.(50+22) 12 = Rs.864/-.
